The City of Sammamish is committed to providing funding support to local non-profit organizations to help ensure that Sammamish residents can access assistance they may need to survive and thrive. This may include help with food, shelter, utility bills, medical or dental care, legal issues, counseling, employment and affordable child care.

Every two years, the City solicits applications for Human Service Funding. The grants are awarded based on the service provided, the number of Sammamish residents served, as well as the organizations ability to provide positive outcomes and cooperation with other providers.

The Human Services Task Force consisting of the following seven City Council appointed community volunteers: Pat Castillo; Tom Ehlers; C.J. Kahler; Jane Dulski; Joyce Bottenberg; Larry Wright & Nancy Johnson reviewed, scored and made recommendations to City Council for final grant funding approval.

A total of 52 agencies submitted applications for review. "Birthday Dreams" and "Old Friends Club" were not awarded funding for this grant cycle. The following 50 Service Providers were awarded funding for the 2017-2018 budget cycle:
